

Graduate Lawyer

DMAW Lawyers, one of Adelaide's leading corporate and commercial law firms, has a position available for a Graduate Lawyer. The role is working in the team of one of our most experienced partners whose team provides professional services in a wide range of commercial matters. These include acquisitions and transactional work in a range of industries, including the franchising industry, health, financial services, retail and property.

The successful applicant will have completed their studies and been recently admitted (or at least close to being admitted) to practice in South Australia.

Some of your key responsibilities will include, but not be limited to;

- preparing initial drafts of advices
- preparing initial drafts of transactional and other documentation
- preparing correspondence with clients, other legal practitioners and other persons.
- attending client meetings and/or teleconferences
- assisting with document management/due diligence
- researching points of law

You will need to have a positive and proactive approach in an environment which encourages on-going learning and development. You will have well-developed computer skills, good problem solving abilities, excellent academic results and communication skills. In particular you will need to have superior professional writing ability by comparison to your peer group. Prior work experience in a professional environment will be well regarded but is not essential.

We seek an engaging, confident individual who will conduct themselves in a highly professional manner. The right attitude is essential, and a positive and enthusiastic approach well regarded.

If you want to commence or continue your commercial law career in a fresh, friendly and focused environment we urge you to apply.

Written applications will be treated with strict confidentiality and should be addressed to:
