

Graduate Lawyer – Corporate Advisory / Business Transactions

DMAW Lawyers, one of Adelaide's leading corporate and commercial law firms, has a position available for a Graduate Lawyer. The role has two discrete aspects. The first involves assisting in our Corporate Advisory area, where you will be working on IPO's, capital raisings, mergers and acquisitions and corporate advice. There is an emphasis on work in the resources and energy sector. The second aspect involves assisting in Business Transactions and Advice, with an emphasis on the hospitality sector where you will be working on the sale and purchase of businesses, property work and licensing issues.

The successful applicant will have completed their studies and been recently admitted (or at least close to being admitted) to practice in South Australia.

Working closely with partners in two work groups, some of your key responsibilities will include, but not be limited to;

- preparing an initial draft of an advice
- preparing initial drafts of transactional and other documentation
- attending client meetings and/or teleconferences
- assisting with document management/due diligence
- preparing case chronologies
- researching points of law

You will need to have a positive and proactive approach in an environment which encourages on-going learning and development. You will have well-developed computer skills, good problem solving abilities, and excellent academic results and communication skills. In particular you will need to have superior professional writing ability by comparison to your peer group. Prior work experience in a professional environment will be well regarded but not essential.

We seek an engaging, confident individual who will conduct themselves in a highly professional manner. The right attitude is essential, with a positive and enthusiastic approach will be well regarded.

If you want to commence or continue your commercial law career in a fresh, friendly and focused environment we urge you to apply.

Written applications will be treated with strict confidentiality and should be addressed to:
